Handing in this application form does not automatically grant your child admission to the SESB. The decision will be made after assessing the child's language skills.

I/We have received the information sheet about the application for admission of a child to a different primary school (SESB), which explains the selection procedure in detail.

Please bring the following documents to registration

- guardian's identity card/passport
- child's birth certificate
- declaration of consent to visit the SESB
- Sprachstandsfeststellung from the kindergarten
- Application to competent elementary school

The registration is valid only for the announced school year and must be extended by you actively.

If registration is signed by only one parent/guardian, the signing parent/guardian must show proof of sole custody/guardianship or agreement of the other parent/guardian.
